

Chippendale 300 exhibition 'The Paxton Style: Neat & Substantially Good'

To celebrate the tercentenary of Chippendale's birth, Chippendale 300 is a nationwide celebration of events inspired by the life, work and legacy of Thomas Chippendale, the most famous and influential furniture maker Britain has ever produced.

Paxton House holds one of the world's largest collections of Chippendale furniture. Our Nationally Significant collection was awarded Recognition status by Museums Galleries Scotland, on behalf of the Scottish Government, in 2017.

The Paxton Style: 'Neat & Substantially Good'* exhibition (5th June to 28th August 2018) showcases new research on the Chippendale furniture commissioned by the Home family and includes masterpiece loans from private and public collections including the V&A Museum and National Museums of Scotland. It also examines the influences upon the pieces and the legacy they had on further work by the Chippendale firm and beyond.
