The 2023 conference will be based on the campus of Bangor University. Bangor is accessible by rail, the campus walkable from the station by the foot. Accommodation has been reserved from Wednesday 5th July, for the conference will start at 08:30 on Thursday 6th July and finish on the morning of Sunday 9th July. The student accommodation is of entirely single rooms with en-suite showers. We will be travelling by coach Thursday to Saturday. The conference package includes supper on Wednesday 5th July, breakfasts, evening meals and most lunches.

The fee for this conference is currently less than the 2022 Somerset event. Since costs are difficult to predict at this stage, we may need to levy a surcharge of no more than £50 per person.

The RFS website will be updated when an event is fully subscribed or any significant amendments are made to the itinerary since the Spring Newsletter went to press.
