Applications are accepted from paid up RFS members of the Society. Guests are usually welcome at the same rate. Please add their names to the form. Places are allocated in order of receipt. The website is updated once events are fully subscribed. You will receive a confirmation by email or post mid March. Inform the events organiser promptly if you have to cancel. The RFS reserves the right to cancel, postpone or alter any event. It is the responsibility of members and their guests to judge they are fit to attend events. By applying you have agreed to participate at your own risk.

We require payment by separate cheque for each event accompanying this form. Your cheque will usually be banked shortly before the event takes place, and will be shredded if the event has to be cancelled. If you elect to pay by bank transfer, on receipt of an email confirming the event is going ahead, please make a separate bank transfer for each event to: Lloyds Bank, sort code: 30-94-81 a/c 00882432 adding the event reference: "Hammersmith" or "Lancaster". Please add your surname if the account you are paying from is not in your name.

Whichever payment method you choose, please post this form to RFS Events Secretary, 2 Grove Cottages, Sutherland Road, London W4 2QS . This form may also be available to print from the RFS website .

Hammersmith Riverside Arts & Crafts. 11:00 Friday 21st April

A day exploring the historic riverside between Hammersmith and Chiswick, home of William Morris and his disciples connected with the decorative arts. Our day starts with the William Morris Society at Kelmscott House followed by a tour of Emery Walker's house. After lunching at a riverside pub or cafe we will be guided along Chiswick Mall, the home of many connected with the Arts over the last 150 years, ending at the historic Fullers Brewery at 3:00 pm, where we have the option of taking a brewery tour culminating in a tasting. This event is easily accessible from Hammersmith station; the 533 express bus returning to Hammersmith from the brewery. £25 for the morning, and £25 for the afternoon brewery tour. Apply by March 1st
